

Many prestigious prizes awarded to wines from the Famiglia Pasqua in recent months.
Among them, the Amarone Famiglia Pasqua 2013 stands out with TRE BICCHIERI awarded by Gambero Rosso and 91 points by Robert Parker.

Verona, 10 October 2017 – Gambero Rosso, Robert Parker, Decanter, IWC, DoctorWine, Bibenda and the Merano Wine Festival recognized the quality of Pasqua wines, assigning to labels presented at the last edition of Vinitaly, excellent scores and awards. The Amarone Famiglia Pasqua, 2013 vintage, was awarded “Tre Bicchieri” by Gambero Rosso and given 91/100 points by Robert Parker, who described it as a very engaging, powerful, and deeply intense. This is an internationally award-winning label both by the publications of reference as well as competitions: the 2006 reserve received 94/100 from Robert Parker and has been indicated as the best Italian red wine and best Amarone at International Wine Challenge in London last year.

Another Amarone, Mai Dire Mai 2010, received excellent scores recently: DoctorWine awarded 93/100 points and the Merano Wine Festival gave it a Gold sticker, naming it an outstanding superior product. DoctorWine awarded 91/100 points to Amarone Cecilia Beretta Terre di Cariano Riserva 2012.

Bibenda awarded the highest accolade of 5 bunches to two Famiglia Pasqua labels: Amarone Cecilia Beretta Terre di Cariano Riserva 2012 and Amarone Villa Borghetti 2014.

"The dedication to the quality of our wines, which translates into extreme care throughout the entire production process, from the vineyard to the winery and the final packaging, has been recognized by the most authoritative observers in our industry – commented President Umberto Pasqua - in the United States and Europe. We are honored".

"The awards and the excellent scores are an incentive to do even better," concluded CEO Riccardo Pasqua. Excellence is built with the daily commitment of a team going in the same direction. I am proud of my under 40 team."

Not only the red wines of Valpolicella, which are at the heart of the production were recognized with awards, but also the white wine PassioneSentimento, dedicated to the city of Verona, and the new rosé 11 Minutes, an exquisite blend, created from the noblest parts of carefully selected grapes. In Europe, Decanter awarded 91/100 points to both.
